B. To provide an entity for the furtherance of the interest of the owners of units, as defined in the Declaration in the Condominium Project.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS

In furtherance of its purposes, but not otherwise, the corporation shall have the following powers:

A. All of the powers conferred upon nonprofit corporations by the common law and the statutes of the State of Colorado in effect from time to time.

C. All of the powers necessary or desirable to perform the obligations and duties and exercise the rights and powers of the Association under the above referenced Declaration (those which are defined in the Declaration shall have the same meaning herein unless otherwise defined), including, without limitation, the following powers:

1. To make and collect assessments against members for the purpose of defraying the costs, expenses, and any losses of the corporation, or of exercising its powers or of performing its functions.

2. To manage, control, operate, maintain, repair, and improve the General Common Elements.

3. To enforce covenants, restrictions, and conditions affecting any property to the extent this corporation may be authorized under any such covenants, restrictions or conditions and to make and enforce rules and regulations for use of property in the Condominium Project.

4. To engage in activities which will actively foster, protect and advance the common ownership interests of owners of units.

5. To buy or otherwise acquire, sell or otherwise dispose of, mortgage or otherwise encumber, exchange, lease, hold, use, operate and otherwise deal with and in, real, personal and mixed property of all kinds, and any right or interest therein, for any purpose of the corporation.

6. To borrow money and secure the repayment of monies borrowed for any purpose of this corporation, limited in amount or in other respects as may be provided in the By-Laws of this corporation or in the Declaration.

7. To enter into, make, perform or enforce contracts of any kind and description, including, without limitation, a contract for management services, and to do all other acts necessary, appropriate or advisable in carrying out any purpose of this corporation, with or in association with any person, firm, association, corporation or other entity or agency, public or private.

8. To act as agent, trustee or other representative of other corporations, firms and individuals and as such to advance the business or ownership interests of such corporations, firms or individuals.

9. To adopt, alter, and amend or repeal such By-Laws as may be necessary or desirable for the proper management of the affairs of this corporation, provided, however, that such By-Laws may not be inconsistent with or contrary to any provisions of these Articles or the Declaration.

10. The foregoing enumeration of powers shall not limit or restrict in any manner the exercise of other and further rights and powers which may now or hereafter be allowed or permitted by law and the powers specified in each of the paragraphs of this Article 10 are independent powers, not to be restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or provisions of this Article 10.

C. Notwithstanding the above, unless at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the First Mortgages of Units (based upon one vote for each First Mortgage owned or held) and owners of at least two-thirds of the Units have given their prior written approval, the Association shall not be empowered to:

1. By act or omission, seek to abandon or terminate the Condominium Project;

2. Partition or subdivide any Unit;

3. By act or omission seek to abandon, partition, subdivide, encumber, sell or transfer any of the General or Limited Common Elements;

The cotenant's percentage of ownership of a Unit shall be as determined by the title documents of such Unit; in the absence of specific limitation, cotenants shall be presumed to have equal undivided interests. No person or entity other than an Owner of a Unit may be a regular member of the corporation.

E. A membership in the corporation and the share of a member in the assets of the corporation shall not be assigned, encumbered or transferred in any manner except as an appurtenance to transfer of title to the Unit to which the membership pertains, provided, however, that the rights of membership may be assigned to the holder of a mortgage, deed of trust, or other security instrument on a Unit as further security for a loan secured by a lien on such Unit.

F. A transfer of membership shall occur automatically upon transfer of title to the Unit to which the membership pertains provided, however, that the By-Laws of the corporation may contain reasonable provisions and requirements with respect to recording such transfers on the books and records of the corporation.

G. The corporation may suspend the voting rights of a member for failure to comply with rules and regulations or the By-Laws of the corporation or with any other obligation of the Owner of a Unit under the Declaration, or agreement created pursuant thereto.

H. The By-Laws may contain provisions, not inconsistent with the foregoing, setting forth the rights, privileges, duties and responsibilities of the members.
